Greetings folks. My apologies for not hearing from me sooner...I bought a new computer, and was not able to 'migrate' most of my e mail info, addresses etc...some people think that's a blessing! :-)

Our next meeting is this thursday, and hopefully we can decide on a committee, officers, incorporation etc.

Cheers,

Rob.

Let me know if there's anyone else you think should be invited.

my new e mail is jamirish@sbcglobal.net
